Five Star Products, Inc. Announces New Product Specialist Position

Shelton, CT, June 2017 – Five Star Products, Inc. is pleased to announce that Alex Blythe has assumed the role of Product Specialist. In this new position, Alex will support the company's market managers covering a range of research, industry and trending information. He will report to Robert Williams, Vice President of Marketing. Prior to this position, Alex began his career at Five Star as an intern in Technical Services. Becoming a full-time staff member, he worked as a Marketing Specialist and most recently as a Technical Services Specialist.

"Alex has worked effectively with our team in previous positions and brings a solid background to this new responsibility. In the Product Specialist role, he will take charge of critically important details that support the fast-paced work of our market managers," said Mr. Williams.

Alex is a graduate of the University of Michigan. He holds a degree of Bachelor of Arts and Design, as well as a Bachelor of Arts Environmental Studies with a minor in Global Media Studies.
