Five Star Products, Inc. announces the promotion of James Tate to serve as General Manager

Shelton, CT, May 2018 – Five Star Products, Inc. - Michael K. Harvey, President & CEO, announced the promotion of James Tate to serve as General Manager of Five Star Marine. The company engineers product solutions to meet any number of challenges that marine contractors face; variations in tidal heights, currents, and a range of marine environments.

In this new position James will manage daily operations in the manufacturing facility. As well, he will fill the role of Sales Manager for Five Star Marine, oversee customer service management and support engineering functions.

James started working with Five Star Marine in 2009. He was the second of the first three employees hired to start the business. There are now 23 employees. James served in the position of Plant Supervisor until accepting this new position.

"I can't wait to see what the future holds not only for me, but for Five Star Marine. Our contributions to this category of business have been exceptional," noted Tate.
